

Conditions of entry

1. Memory Walk Marathon is being promoted by Alzheimer's Society registered charity 296645.
2. We require a non-refundable registration fee of £30 to reserve your place. This should be made payable to Alzheimer's Society and enclosed with your application form.
3. By registering for this challenge, you are pledging to raise the minimum sponsorship of £260. You must endeavour to raise as much as possible above this amount.
4. You must carry out your fundraising in accordance with the guidelines set out in the Alzheimer's Society fundraising pack, which will be sent out to you following confirmation of your registration.
5. You must aim to send in your sponsorship prior to the event and at the latest by four weeks after the event.
6. Should you, for whatever reason, not take up your place, all sponsor forms and sponsor money collected must be forwarded to the Alzheimer's Society or returned to sponsors if requested and if this is possible.
7. Participants must be at least 18 years old by the departure date. Children of 14 or over are able to take part if accompanied by a parent or guardian.
8. You must not suffer from alcohol or drug dependency or have any criminal convictions.
9. The Alzheimer's Society has the right to alter the itinerary should climatic or other unforeseen circumstances deem this necessary,
10. You must be reasonably fit to cover a full days trekking across rugged terrain. You must fill in the medical questionnaire enclosed. If you are over 65 years old, or if you have any medical condition which could be adversely affected by exercise, particularly a heart condition, you must obtain a medical certificate from your doctor to certify that you are fit enough for this trip. By signing this pledge you are confirming that, to the best of your knowledge, your general state of health is good and that you take full responsibility for yourself.
11. You participate at your own risk. The ground operator will provide advice, instructions and warnings to minimise risk and you will be required to comply with them. You are responsible for your own actions or inactions. Where these differ from the wishes of the ground operator, neither the ground operator, the Alzheimer's Society, its employees or agents can be held responsible for loss or damage to personal effects, injury or death.
12. Alzheimer's Society has arranged ground arrangements through Discover Adventure Limited, ATOL no. 5636 and AITO, which specialises in organising challenge events. In making these arrangements Alzheimer's Society is acting as your agent, and is unable to accept liability for any loss or damage, however arising, or for cancellation of the event for any reasons outside its control.
13. You must accept the booking conditions of our tour operator Discover Adventure Limited as detailed overleaf.
14. Alzheimer's Society may, at their sole discretion, withdraw places on the challenge if it is believed to be in their best interest to do so.
15. Photographs taken on the challenge may be used for marketing purposes.

Cancellation guidelines

If Alzheimer's Society cancels owing to:

- There being fewer than the minimum required number of participants, Alzheimer's Society will offer you a refund of your registration fee. Any sponsor money collected must be forwarded to the Alzheimer's Society and this will be treated as a donation* unless sponsors specifically ask for it to be returned to them. The Alzheimer's Society is unable to return anonymous donations and any income raised through fundraising events.

It is only in the above circumstances that your registration fee will be refunded. In all other circumstances your registration fee is non-refundable.

*Any Challenge costs incurred at the time of cancellation will be taken from the sponsor money.

If you cancel:

Where you are unable to take part in the Challenge for any reason, including injury and changed personal circumstances, the following policy applies:

- You can transfer, once only, to the same event next year if it is being run and if you have already started your fundraising.
- If you do not wish to transfer, you forfeit your registration fee
- Any sponsor money collected must be forwarded to the Alzheimer's Society and this will be treated as a donation* unless sponsors specifically ask for it to be returned to them. The Alzheimer's Society is unable to return anonymous donations and any income raised through fundraising events.
- It is your responsibility to contact your sponsors telling them you are no longer participating in the Challenge, and what will happen to their sponsor money.

*Any Challenge costs incurred at the time of cancellation will be taken from the sponsor money.

DISCOVER ADVENTURE LTD BOOKING CONDITIONS

Discover Adventure Ltd (The Company) accepts bookings subject to the following conditions.

FINANCIAL SECURITY

The Company is fully bonded and licensed by the Civil Aviation Authority for your financial protection. Under the terms of the bonds, monies are secured by insurance guarantees. Discover Adventures ATOL number is 5636. Discover Adventure is also a member of AITO securing all trips excluding flights.

INSURANCE & CANCELTION INSURANCE

Travel insurance is not mandatory for clients whilst on a tour organised by the Company taking place within the UK. It is however, recommended. Clients together with their personal property including baggage are at all times solely at their own risk. Clients are wholly responsible for arranging their own insurance should they require it. Clients not taking out the Company's specially arranged Travel/Cancellation insurance but who wish to have their own insurance are responsible for ensuring that they are in possession of private Travel Insurance with protection for the full duration of the tour in respect of at least medical expenses, injury, death, repatriation, cancellation and curtailment, with adequate cover. Clients making their own arrangements should ensure that there are no exclusion clauses limiting protection for the type of activities included in their tour. Clients should satisfy themselves that any travel insurance arranged through the Company is what they require and should arrange supplementary insurance if need be. Clients will be deemed to have read the insurance cover.

ITINERARY

While we endeavour to follow our itinerary there may be exceptional circumstances when this is not possible. We reserve the right to cancel or modify the itinerary as necessary.

It is unlikely that Discover Adventure will have to make any changes to your trip, but due to the nature of the trips arrangements have to be planned well in advance, so changes may have to be made and the Company reserves the right to do this. Should a material change be necessary the Company will inform you as soon as reasonably possible. A material change includes, for example, a significant change of destination, route, a change of flight time by more than 12 hours or a change of airport.

MEDICAL FORM

If you are aged over 65 years of age or if you have any medical condition that could be adversely affected by exercise, particularly a heart condition or asthma, you must provide the Company with a medical certificate from your doctor. By signing this pledge you are confirming that, to the best of your knowledge, your general state of health is good and that you take full responsibility for your health and personal well being.

MINIMUM AGE

Participants must be 18 years of age. DA reserves the right to refuse participation to anyone at any time without having to disclose the reason.

CHALLENGE PARTICIPATION

We accept your booking on the understanding that you realise the hazards involved in this type of tour, including injury or death, disease, loss or damage to property, and that you come on the tour at your own risk. We accept no liability for any injury resulting from the hazards of trekking, cycling or any other activity included in the itinerary, or for any other mishaps to yourself or your property. Any independent travel arrangements that you make are also at your own risk.

IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT

Should the client have a complaint about any of the tour arrangements, the client must tell both the relevant supplier and the Company's representative at the time. It is only if the Company and the relevant supplier know about problems that there will be the opportunity to put things right.
